How to teach

Every lesson is 60 minutes: warm-up 8, new language 10, guided practice 12, free speaking 18, polish 7, homework 5. After the first ten minutes, students should speak more than the teacher.

Correct the day's target sentences during guided practice. Do not stop a story for small grammar. Never mock a student. Never treat adult beginners like children. Mother-tongue instructions are allowed at Beginner; the speech you want back is English.

Homework is a voice note or a real line in the city. Reply with one glow and one grow.

Place a student

Age first, then a 10-minute talk: name, family, a normal day, last Sunday, next weekend, a photo, an opinion. For older students, a team story or why this job.

Silence or one word → Beginner. Short present sentences → Elementary / Everyday. Understands but freezes → Fluency. Can argue and wants polish → Upper or Interview. When in doubt, start easier.

Timelines

6-week starter: two hours a week, only lessons tagged 6-week (the spine). 3-month core: lessons tagged 3-month. 6-month: every lesson. Crash: daily, only crash-tagged lessons, for Interview and teen orals.

Children · First words that work

Children 6–10

Absolute Beginner / Beginner

48 lessons

Names, family, tiffin, park, shop, and school. Games first. Full sentences soon.

Who: Urban children aged 6–10 who are new to speaking English, including those who can read a little from school.

Done when: The child can greet, name family and school things, buy one item, ask for help, and give a one-minute ‘All about me’.

Place here when: Place here if the child answers with one word or silence, and needs pictures and movement.

Teacher note: Keep lessons physical. Sit on the floor if that helps. Never make a child perform before they have rehearsed with a partner.

Tests

Start	Name, hello, point to three colours or objects.
Mid (after lesson 24)	Name, age, family, one polite request, favourite food.
End	One-minute talk plus shop or help role-play.

Young adults · Campus English from the ground

Young adults 18–25

Beginner

31 lessons

College, commute, money, hostel, and a human talk about this year.

Who: Urban young adults starting spoken English seriously — college, first job, or a gap year.

Done when: They can move around campus in English, split a bill, call a classmate, and give a two-minute year talk.

Place here when: Place here if they still need full-sentence building on adult topics.

Teacher note: Keep the register adult. Money and stress belong in this course. No children's games unless they ask.

Tests

Start	Intro, course or job, area of the city.
Mid	Campus help, commute, weekend, opinion.
End	Showcase plus problem role-play.

Young adults · Interview and first-job speech

Young adults 18–25

Interview speaking

20 lessons

Tell me about yourself, STAR, why us, GD, and mocks. Crash option included.

Who: Final-year students and first-job hunters who can already hold a conversation.

Done when: They can do a 12-minute mock with intro, proof, one STAR, and two questions for HR.

Place here when: Not for true beginners. Use after Fluency, or if they already speak at Intermediate.

Teacher note: Crash = lessons tagged crash, daily if possible. Never guarantee a job. Guarantee clearer speech.

Tests

Start	Current intro, timed. Usually too long or too empty.
Mid	Full mock 1.
End	Harder mock 2 plus public intro.

Lessons

Lesson 01 · What HR is actually listening for 6w, 3m, 6m, crash

Understand the interview as a conversation, not a memory test.

Say this: They're checking if I can think and speak clearly. · I can pause. · I can ask for a second.

Warm-up. Myths: British accent, 10-minute life story, zero nerves. Teach. Teach pause / could you repeat the question / the short answer is. Guided. Bad vs good 30-second answers to How are you? Free. Nerves are allowed. Silence of 20 seconds is not. A 3-second pause is fine. Polish. Invite two or three students to speak. Correct only the target sentences. End with a class repeat.

Homework. Do a 10-minute self-mock weekly until placed.

Slips. Guaranteeing a TCS offer → Guarantee they can speak for 90 seconds with proof

Adults · Start from zero, with dignity

Adults 26–50 · also Seniors 50+

Absolute Beginner

31 lessons

Name, shop, doctor, phone, building, school gate. Seniors use the same book, slower.

Who: Urban adults who have little or no spoken English. Homemakers, workers, and seniors are all welcome.

Done when: They can greet, shop, ask for help, tell a simple day, and speak for one minute about their life.

Place here when: Place here if they need the local language for almost every instruction.

Teacher note: If you are teaching seniors (50+), use this same course at a slower pace. Skip job-interview energy. Keep everyday city life. Repeat more. Sit more. Praise effort every time. Never rush a person who is thinking.

Tests

Start	Name and hello only. Smile.
Mid	Home, shop, help, Sunday.
End	Showcase plus shop or help.

Adults · Everyday city English

Adults 26–50 · also Seniors 50+

Elementary / Everyday

25 lessons

PTA, doctor details, appointments, society, travel, a week in the city.

Who: Adults who can already do the Absolute Beginner test, or who have school English but only use it in shops with fear.

Done when: They can handle PTA, a clinic story, a complaint, a neighbour chat, and a two-minute week talk.

Place here when: Place here after Absolute, or if they survive a shop but freeze at school or the doctor.

Teacher note: If you are teaching seniors (50+), use this same course at a slower pace. Skip job-interview energy. Keep everyday city life. Repeat more. Sit more. Praise effort every time. Never rush a person who is thinking. Seniors may skip workplace-like society fights if it drains them; keep guests, park, and doctor.

Tests

Start	Neighbour hello, shop, one home sentence.
Mid	PTA or doctor, appointment call, complaint.
End	Week-in-my-city plus one role-play.
